SPRiNG Alliance Symposium
Wednesday, April 26, 2017

8:30–9:00 a.m.
Continental Breakfast, Wasserman Social Hall

9:00–9:15 a.m.
Welcome

9:15–10:30 a.m.

Faith Communities and Elder Abuse Readiness
Rev. Dr. Anne Marie Hunter, Director
Safe Havens Interfaith Partnership Against Domestic Violence and Elder Abuse
This presentation is supported by the William E. Cross Foundation.
Q&A

10:45–11:45 a.m.

SPRING into Action: Our Journey as a Movement
Marlene Riquelme, Public Health Specialist
The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Center for Elder Abuse Prevention at the Hebrew Home at Riverdale

11:45 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Tour of Post-Acute Care Center
Ann Matesi, Program Director, Physical Therapy, Charles E. Smith Life Communities

12:00–1:00 p.m.
Lunch, Wasserman Social Hall

1:15–2:15 p.m.

Working Toward Positive Outcomes on Complex Elder Abuse Cases
Jackie Schroeder, Director of SAFE: Stop Abuse of Elders, and Ellyn Loy, CHANA

2:30–3:00 p.m.

Coalition Building to Advance Advocacy Goals
Tovah Kasdin, Director, ElderSAFE™ Center

3:00–4:00 p.m.

The SPRiNG Alliance: Moving Right Along
Joy Solomon, Director and Managing Attorney
The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Center for Elder Abuse Prevention at the Hebrew Home at Riverdale

6:30–8:30 p.m.

Dinner at City Perch, Pike and Rose; sponsored by
The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Center for Elder Abuse Prevention at the Hebrew Home at Riverdale

Charles E. Smith Life Communities